THE SHOPS AT WISCONSIN PLACE IS GOING TO THE CATS AND DOGS

This Saturday, June 25th from 1:30 to 3:30pm the Washington Humane Society (WHS) will be holding a pet adoption on the plaza at the Shops at Wisconsin Place.

The Washington Humane Society is the only Congressionally-chartered animal welfare agency in the United States. The Society provides comfort and care to nearly 30,000 animals each year through its broad range of programs. Stephanie Shain the Society's director stated, "The WHS is always looking for community partners willing to provide the opportunity for our animals to find suitable homes".

The Shops at Wisconsin Place, conveniently located on Wisconsin Avenue in Chevy Chase, Maryland, features Bloomingdale's, Whole Foods Market, Anthropologie, Eileen Fisher and The Capital Grille, to name a few of their key merchants. Courtney Retzky, marketing assistant for the Shops at Wisconsin Place, confirmed their strong community interests, "The Shops at Wisconsin Place is a vibrant community of shoppers, merchants and residents who are always looking for new ways to connect".

If dogs and cats aren't enough - Georgetown Cupcake of TLC's hit show DC Cupcakes will be providing dozens of their mouth-watering sweet treats to prospective adopters.

Last but not least, what dog doesn't like to chase a tennis ball? Well, Topspin, the Washington Kastles pro tennis team's mascot will be stopping by to take photos and help WHS pups find forever homes.
